9. [ ] Dorothy Fosdick, staff of the Permanent Investigations Subcommittee, called to say Senator Jackson had asked that we brief Richard Perle, of the Subcommittee staff, and herself on the situation in the Middle East on an expedite basis with particular emphasis on what she described as a Soviet arms buildup in Syria and Egypt. I accompanied [ ] OCI, and [ ] OSR, to a meeting with them this afternoon. The session became a little heated at times with Perle's insistence on following a line of discussion that seemed to be based on the position that the Soviets had been largely responsible for the action taken by the Egyptians and the Syrians. He pressed [ ] for a breakdown of the "flow" of specific Soviet military assistance to these two countries by quarters over the past year. [ ] said he would have to pull this information together and we will try to get it to Perle tomorrow.

1. [ ] Dorothy Fosdick, staff of the Permanent Investigations Subcommittee, called and said they had received a rumor that the Soviets are about to reestablish diplomatic relationships with Israel and she wondered if we had any information on this. After checking with [ ] OCI, I told Fosdick that we had heard the same rumor but at this point we were giving it no credit. She said this was all she wanted to know and thanked me for checking on it.
